SAVED BY THE ALPHABET, a picture book for children through age seven, is a scriptural alphabet book. Children will learn their Catholic Faith while learning their ABCs because each letter of the alphabet represents an actual person found in Scripture who plays a role in our history of salvation.

Endorsements & Recommendations

Nihil Obstat and Imprimatur by The Most Reverend Peter J. Jugis, J.C.D., Bishop of Charlotte, North Carolina

“For those who want the minds and hearts of God’s ‘little ones’ to know and love Scripture in a most understanding and beautiful way, the answer is, Saved by the Alphabet. This is done not only in its clear and simple text, but also in the beauty of its art. God bless you!” – Mother Mary Assumpta Long, OP, Co-Foundress of the Dominican Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist

“Beautiful illustrations! This book would make a lovely addition to any Catholic home with small children.” – Patrice Fagnant-MacArthur, columnist for CatholicMom.com

“It’s a beautiful book that is surely going to be a family treasure. A tremendous and joyful help for children to learn the faith through the alphabet and colorful pictures.” – Joseph Pronechen, National Catholic Register

Saved by the Alphabet is the perfect companion book to Counting on Faith.
